CLASS HISTORY

In the year of nineteen hundred and forty-one, the doors of White Plains School opened wide for a group of eager-to-learn children, with Mrs. Christian as our teacher. During the first year in school some were laughing, some were crying, and now and then some were probably found in a little scrap. Nevertheless, we were learning readin', ritin', and 'rithmetic.

After our first year with Mrs. Christian, we traveled in and out the doors of Mrs. Taylor's, Mrs. Chilton's, Mrs. Badgett's, Mrs. Sisk's, Mrs. Draughn's, Mrs. Simpson's and Mr. Everet Reece's rooms, and then we were finally ready for high school.

When we entered our first year in high school, we were thrilled at the thought of being called a "Freshman." Our class was under the guidance of Mrs. Patterson. After nine months of hard work and many interesting experiences, we completed the ninth grade and were ready to travel on.

Our Sophomore year, we had Miss Webb for our home room teacher. The year passed by with several class parties and other interesting activities. Our class officers that year were; Margie Simpson, president, Mary Faye Jackson, Vice-president, Cassie Gwyn, Secretary, and Novijo Draughn, treasurer. Before we knew it, another nine months had slipped by, and we could hardly realize we were Juniors!

Our Junior year was an exciting one, with Mr. Cox as our home room teacher. We started the year off by electing class officer, and our president, Shirley Waugh, got things off to a good start with the help of our teacher. We sold magazines, Christmas cards, and other profit making items in order to finance one of the most important events of the year; the Junior-Senior Banquet. This was held April 11, at the Robert E. Lee Hotel in Winston-Salem. Everyone had a wonderful time and will long remember that momentous occasion.

In September 1952, twenty-four students returned for their final year of school under the guiding hand of Miss Simpson. We dignified seniors were fully aware of the tasks ahead of us; electing class officers, selecting caps and gowns, preparing for graduation, and most important, the publishing of our yearbook, the "Plainsman." We selected our annual staff of fourteen students, and the remaining eleven students presented the senior play, "Amazing Gracie," which was given November 28. All the seniors went about their duties willingly and enthusiastically.

The Junior-Senior Banquet was another wonderful event of our last year in school. The Juniors really gave us a treat and everyone had a grand time! The Junior-Senior Banquet of '53 will be long remembered by the entire Senior Class.

Graduation was upon us before we knew it! We could hardly realize that we, the class of 1953 were ready to make our departure from White Plains High School. On May 29, 1953, twenty-four dignified seniors marched up the aisle of the White Plains auditorium and received their diplomas. We had completed our twelve school years, and were now prepared to either go to college or go out into the world and seek our life's vocation.

CLASS POEM

Alma Mater, the Class of 1953 bids you farewell
As we go out from your hallowed walls.
You have been a real Mother to us along the way-
Teaching us courage, honesty and loyalty,
To the things that are noble in life.
A new life now beckons beyond the horizon
Calling us to rake our places in the busy everyday world.
Our teachers, we thank you for your patient instruction,
Your continued love for us when we were often unlovable.
Memories of you will linger in our hearts long after
Your faces we no longer see.
Alma Mater, the Class of 1953 bids you farewell,
But for us you will remain our Guiding Star.

CLASS PROPHECY

As I gaze into my crystal ball today, I can see the Seniors of '53 as they will be twenty years from now. Here's what I see:

There goes Margie Simpson. Margie is with the Greyhound busline of White Plains, North Carolina; and she doesn't have the job of selling tickets either; she drives a Greyhound!

Next, I see someone in Hollywood who looks mighty familiar--Why it's Nonnie Bunker. She's a very famous movie star. Nonnie just starred in her latest picture, "East Is My Destination."

Listen, I hear someone singing----Why, it's Shirley Waugh! Shirley is an opera singer at the Midnight Club in New York. In her spare time she teaches Journalism and Commercial at the University there. What a way to make a living!

There's Max Venable riding in a 1973 Cadillac. Well, he can afford two--he's now the mayor of White Plains and is receiving lots of money each year. He also has a female chauffeur. Same 'ole Max!

Ah! there's Mary Lou Joyce sweeping the floor of a neat little bungalow. You guessed it, she's happily married. How does it feel to be a Mrs., Mary Lou?

Umm! Smell something delicious cooking? Well, it's Mary Faye Jackson cooking dinner. And here comes a set of twins--could they be hers? Why sure, both boys and just exactly like their papa.

Don Davis is still playing baseball. He's with the New York Yankees now. And the Yankees just won the World Series again! Looks as if Don will have plenty of greenbacks for quite a while.

Garnett Newman has finally invented a car that won't turn over. He is now the World's Champion stock-car racer. Garnett is working on a new invention--a rocket ship made of cellophane.

Billie Mae Harrell has that little trailer she has always wanted. After traveling quite a lot, she and her husband have settled down and are operating a barber shop at the trailer camp in Red Brush, and Billie Mae is the Barber!

Minnie Mae Hodges has her own Cafe in Winston-Salem. Who is that handsome guy helping her? Why, it's her husband, of course! By the way, he's a native of France. They plan to retire in two years and live in Paris.

Sh-h-h- I hear something roaring. Is it an airplane? No, it's a tractor, and who is driving it! Why it's Alma Atkins. She's quite a farmer these days, and she has plenty of help with those eight children of hers. Don't you agree?

Could that be Wallace Kallam coming down the street? He has become president of the largest bank in Washington. Wallace, don't forget your classmates of '53.

Now we're at the White House. Well, just look! It's Mary Ruth Badgett--first woman president of the United States. She's just vetoed another Bill!

Let's journey down the National Art Gallery. Novijo Draughn has just completed a masterpiece painting, which is now on exhibit. She has her own studio in Washington and paints portraits for five thousand dollars each!

Now we're entering a large hospital in Raliegh, North Carolina. Is that Fairy Lee Atkinson? It is, and she's head nurse.

Here comes a lady doctor. Why, it's Betty Haynes. She's one of the most famous brain surgeons in the United States. She looks rather tired becasue she has just completed a very difficult operation-removing the brain from a flea.

Lucy Mae Collins is now playing basketball with the Hanes Hosiery Team in Winston-Salem. Not only that, she's owner of Lucy's Beauty Salon there. Whose hair is she fixing?

Gee Whiz! It's Irene Marshall. Irene married a millionaire and in the summertime she resides at the Conrad-Hilton Hotel, in Chicago, but Flordia is her home during the winter.

There's Theodore Younger. He's a general in Uncle Sam's Army and he's really making those buck-privates step around. He's now stationed in Germany.

And speaking of Germany, who is that missionary we see? Why, it's Berta Ann Schmidt. Well, she always wanted to be a missionary.

Guess what? We have a new teacher at White Plains. Faye Atkins has taken Miss Simpson's place teaching. Miss Simpson has retired and is now residing at her home, "The Retreat."

Hilda Simmons is the basketball coach at Mount Airy High School. They have a very good team too. Incidentally, Hilda coaches the boys.

Mary Frances Parker is with the Central Telephone Company, in White Plains, N.C. When off duty she teaches dancing at her studio. My, she's a busy person.

Now I see someone else coming-Why it's me, Patty Johnson, and just look-I'm a scientist. Can you imagine? I'm working on a wonder drug, trying to find a cure for heartaches.

That is my prophecy for the Class of '53. But seriously, I do hope that each one lives a happy and successful life. Good luck to all of us as we go out into the world.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the seniors of nineteen hundred and fifty-three of White Plains High School, being of sound mind and realizing our final departure as students from this school whose walls have sheltered us for the past twelve years, hereby declare this our Last Will and Testament.

To the Faculty, we bequeath our "Future Success" because we feel it is they who have helped us achieve it.

To Mr. Reece, we leave our bubble gum. He will find it under the tables in the lunch room and library .

To the Juniors, we leave our title as "Dignified Seniors."

To the Sophomores, we will the pleasure of looking forward to the Junior-Senior Banquet.

To the Freshmen, we leave our ability to sweet talk the teachers and get out of class.

And now, we would like to leave a few personal items to the Juniors in hope that they will take good care of them.

Margie Simpson wills her ability to drive a school bus to Polly McCreary and Peggy Atkins. Watch those curves girls and don't let the girl drivers' record drop.

Don Davis wills his ability to play basketball and baseball to James Jackson. Keep the scores on top, James, and maybe someday you'll be captain too!

Mary Frances Parker wills her peroxided hair to Cinnie Sue Brintle, with the reminder not to forget the lemon juice during the process of peroxiding.

Theodore Younger leaves his title "good typist" and "biggest flirt", to Roger Lewis Nichols. Ted's typing record is hard to beat, and his ability to court in the hall without being caught is remarkable!

Mary Lou Joyce leaves her place as librarian to Frankie Anne Moore. Don't forget to check on overdue books, Frankie!

Fairy Lee Atkinson leaves her ability to drive a car to Mary Snow. Don't strip the gears, Mary, and keep an eye open for Larrimore!

Nonnie Bunker wills her ability of keeping the first grade to Barbara Bean. Now Barbara don't be too strick!

Lucy Collins and Betty Haynes leave their basketball ability to Alene Huffman and Rebecca Gunter. Come on girls, and make White Plains shine.

Shirley Waugh leaves her ability to sing to Delphia Hiatt hoping she too can sing her way into someone's heart.

Irene Marshall leaves her dramatic ability to Shelby Badgett. Shelby we hope you too, get the leading role in the Senior Play.

Novijo Draughn wills her ability of making delicious fudge to Martha Cross. Remember Martha, the way to a man's heart, is through his stomach.

Wallace Kallam wills his ability to keep the Senior treasury record accurate to Tommy Dillon. We hope you do as good as Wallace did, Tommy!

Billie Mae Harrell wills her ability of getting along with the opposite sex to Lorene Marshall. Luck to you, Lorene!

Mary Faye Jackson wills her ability of winning medals to Mary Ruth Simpson and Mittie Coe. Best of luck to both you girls!

Berta Ann Schmidt leaves her ability of playing the accordian to Muriel Atkins. Come on Muriel, hit the right keys.

Patty Johnson leaves her ability to get to and from the store without being caught to Sally Lawrence and Betty Jo Watson.

Max Venable wills his hair brush to Fred Riggs. We wonder if Fred will use it as often as Max did.

Hilda Simmons wills her poodle cut to Eula Faye Horton. Hope it looks as good on Eula Faye as it did on Hilda.

Mary Ruth Badgett wills her dancing ability to Grady Nichols.

Garnett Newman wills his English book to Jimmy Dean Marion. Garnett hopes that Jimmy will study it more than he did.

Minnie Mae Hodges wills her curly hair to James Dollyhigh. Watch those waves, James!

Alma Atkins wills her ability of skipping class to Wimpy Simmons.

I, Faye Atkins, will my position as class testator to Franklin Snow.

White Plains Girls One of Strongest Teams in Surry County "1952"

By Allan Jessup

WHITE PLAINS. — With only one regular Don Davis, back from last year's starting team, Coach Swanson Richards of White Plains is experiencing some difficulty in putting a winning boys' combination on the court.

His girls, on the [illegible] hand, have had much mo[illegible] rience and are one of the strongest contenders for Surry County honors.

Coach Richards has done a good [illegible] in early season with both of [illegible] and right now has them [illegible] for high positions in the [illegible]

[illegible] y Simpson, a regular for the [illegible] two years, was lost to the [illegible] a by the 8 semester ruling, and [illegible] was a big blow to Coach Rich[illegible] ls' championship hopes.

Last year Tommy Dillon had a broken leg and didn't play, and early this season Muriel Atkins re[illegible] an injury in the Dobson [illegible] t laid him up for some [illegible] looks as if one of the [illegible] est problems is keeping [illegible] rst team in good playing [illegible]

[illegible] Nichols has usually [illegible] chief point getter, there [illegible] individual stars, and th[illegible] the team has had may b[illegible] outed to skillful team play. [illegible] ack of height and inexperience are the biggest worries of Coach Richards right now. Atkins and Nichols are 5-11 and are the tallest [illegible] son and Lawrence are juniors. The others are seniors.

The girls had a fine record la[illegible] year and are expected to sh[illegible] good form again this season.

Watson and Haynes are the [illegible] ing scorers [illegible] with Haynes, be[illegible] of her he[illegible] playing in the [illegible] position.

All the starting guards play well, have had experience, and should give White Plains one of the stron[illegible] est defensive teams in the cou[illegible]

Carol Venable, a daughter of [illegible] armed Rex Venable, who ma[illegible] basketball history while playing fo[illegible] Copeland High School in the early 30's and Fay Thomas are among the most promising reserves. Coach Richards is really strong on Venable and says she is one of the finest girl prospects he has seen.

Other reserves are Lucy Collins, Mildred Tolbert, Norma Lee Creed, Mary Ruth Badgett, Ruby Bunker, and Mary Ruth Sim[illegible]

WHITE PLAINS COACH — Swanson Richards, a 19[illegible] graduate of Appalach[illegible] State Teachers College, i[illegible] new coach at White Pl[illegible] High School this sea[illegible] Richards handles both [illegible] and girls' teams. He is a [illegible] tive o[illegible] Beulah community and [illegible] graduate of B[illegible] lah Hig[illegible] School.

TWO WHITE PLAINS girls' team leaders are Faye Atkinson (left) and Betty Haynes, both forwards.
